

Training on “Best Practices on Handling, Labeling, Packaging and Forwarding of Physical Clue Material”

The Central Forensic Science Laboratory, Sector 36-A, Chandigarh organized a two days training course on “BEST PRACTICES ON HANDLING, LABELING, PACKAGING AND FORWARDING OF PHYSICAL CLUE MATERIAL” for the police officers of Chandigarh Police during May 19-20, 2017. The course was specially designed to make every endeavour to keep the trainees abreast with forensically the best ways of collection, preserving, labeling, packaging and forwarding the exhibits to the laboratory for getting better results. The course was inaugurated by Sh. A.K.Ganjoo, Director-cum-Chief Forensic Scientist, Directorate of Forensic Science Services, Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. India, New Delhi.

He expressed that Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India is very much keen to upgrade the forensic services in all its six CFSLs viz Chandigarh, Kolkata, Hyderabad, Guwahati, Bhopal and Pune. He advised the scientists of CFSL, Chandigarh to provide State-of-the-Art services to the Chandigarh Police to assist the Criminal Justice Delivery System of India.

Dr.S.K.Jain, Director, CFSL, Chandigarh expressed that the CFSL, Chandigarh has always been stood with the Chandigarh Police by extending its scientific aid for the solution of heinous crimes committed by the criminals in the periphery of UT, Chandigarh.

The valedictory function was graced by Sh. B.M.Sharma, IPS, Principal, Central Detective Training School (CDTS), Chandigarh. He emphasized that interaction among IOs and forensic scientists should remain continue to disseminate the latest technical knowhow to combat with the various new techniques adopted by the criminals now-a-days during committing crimes. The course remained successful.

